Short Answer

Please answer the following six questions honestly and succinctly. Should you require additional space for any section, please attach a separate piece of paper with your responses. We recommend 300 characters maximum for each question.

1. What makes you the interesting person you are? Include qualities you like about yourself.

2. Could you tell me the name of the book or movie you recently read and the impressive part?

3. Tell us about a person, other than a parent, who has influenced you, and how that has changed or shaped your life.

4. What are some difficult decisions you have made in the past two years? Describe the situation and what you have learned about yourself.

5. What is the greatest challenge your generation will face?
